

The Moneys, are a nationally recognized Southern Gospel singing group. Originally the group was formed in 1980 and consisted of brothers, Butch and Eddie, and their sister Karen. In 2000, the group started experiencing a demand for their music ministry all across the country. The Money's have been blessed to be able to share the stage with many of the finest Southern Gospel groups in the industry today. In 2004 The Moneys were named the Southeast Gospel Music Associations "Horizon Group of The Year". Their ministry has carried them all over the United States and to Mexico and The Bahamas. The Money's are a host group on Victory At Sea, a Southern Gospel cruise on Carnival Cruise Lines each year. The Moneys base their ministry in Vilonia, AR. Current members include Karen "Money" Caldwell, Eddie and Lanay Money, Marvin Wendel, Sondra Rice.
